Nebraska Wing Bulletin

PLEASE READ ME!!!!

COMMUNICATIONS: There is a Basic Communications User Training Class scheduled for 26 April at Camp Ashland in Building 409. This is mandatory training for any CAP member, senior or cadet, who does not currently hold a Radio Operator Authorization card (CAPF 76). If you are interested, please contact the wing administrator ASAP to reserve one of the 20 seats available. This class will run from 10 a.m. to noon. I will need to get a list of attendees to the guard gate personnel for access to Camp Ashland. Be sure to have your CAP membership card available, especially if you are not going to be in uniform. Call wing now at 420-309-7665 or email mandusmom@yahoo.com

Nebraska Wing Website: Take a look around! www.newg.cap.gov is being updated. Check out Departments>Executive Staff >Safety, find the safety briefing from 1 April meeting. The FECA & FTCA Phamphlets will be under Departments > Operations>Emergency Services. The Wing Bulletin can now be found at www.newg.cap.gov/Bulletin-be sure to capitalize the B. I will not be sending them out to staff and squadron commanders as an attachment to an email after this month.
