THE BULLETIN

will be taking on some new looks next month. The calendar dates will be posted once for the next months with only changes or additions in the subsequent bulletins. Posting the bulletin on your meeting bulletin board will give all your members access to it. There will be trivia questions included in each bulletin and if you have any suggestions, don't hesitate to send them to me via email or the pigeon carrier still works! If your unit is doing a unit newsletter, include a copy to the wing headquarters. If you have any ideas or how you would like to see the bulletin, let me know.

NATIONAL CHECK PILOT STANDARDIZATION COURSE

pre-registration by 9 July to attend in Fremont, for all CAP Instructor, Check, Mission Check and other pilots to attend to focus on CAP Form 5 Check Ride and recent changes in FAA Wings Program. More details to follow, call Capt. Fred Meier at 402-475-1302.

UPDATE ON MEMBERS:

Colonel Clyde Webb, former NEWG Commander, is recuperating at home and progressing well after his heart attack in May. MSgt Ken Dutton, retired and former Nebraska LNCO has completed his chemo therapy and resting well at home. We wish you speedy recoveries!

AF WEATHER AGENCY FAMILIARIZATION COURSE

was directed by LTC. Bob McCartney and held at Offutt AFB in June. The seven CAP Cadet members to complete the course were from Wisconsin, Florida, Maryland, North and South Carolina and New York.

LTC. Darrell McMillan was one of 51 to attend the master level-course at the CAP Inspector General College held at Kirtland AFB in New Mexico. Members spent the week in training to handle and investigate complaints and conduct inspections.

NATIONAL FLIGHT ACADEMY under the direction of Maj. David Plum was held at Camp Ashland in June and was attended by 23 CAP cadets representing Hawaii, Florida, Arkansas, Colorado, Missouri, New Hampshire, Maryland, Tennessee, Wisconsin, Arizona, North and South Carolina, Michigan & Nebraska. All the cadets achieved their first solo flight with the help of seven pilots from Nebraska, Missouri, South Dakota and Kansas.

Trivia Questions: If you suffer from lilapsophobia, what are you afraid of?
What causes the wind to blow?
Answers will be here next week!
